Bullying Prevention & Resolution Package

According to statistics reported on www.stopbullying.gov, approximately one out of five high school students across the country report being a victim of some form of bullying. The damaging effects of bullying are widespread and can have a long-lasting impact on the victims, the perpetrators, the bystanders, and their families.

If your child is experiencing bullying at school or online, let Perkins Law help your family navigate the process of finding a resolution as your advisor and advocate through a flat fee package of services including the following assistance:

1. An initial consultation to discuss factual background, desired outcomes, and resolution strategies.
2. Communicating with school officials.
3. Navigating school resolution procedures.
4. Communicating with the parent/legal guardian of the alleged perpetrator.
5. Communicating with local law enforcement (as appropriate).

This flat fee package costs $1,500 and includes up to ten (10) hours of assistance as summarized above. Additional time will be billed at a discounted hourly rate of $150.
